These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of discusses of the Liver and smaller glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe, certain and pleasant. READ AND BE CONVINCED.

The Hon, Charles D. Honeline, Editor of the "Cam-den Democrat," the best paper in West Jersey, says, July "We have seen many flattering notices of to is medicine and the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual the source from which they came, induced us to make annual they came annua and the source from which they take, induced us to make inquiry respecting its neurits. From inquiry we ware persunded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the power it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthers the nerves, inging them into a state of repose and makes sleep refreshing.

Judge M. M. Noah, a gentleman with great scientific and literary attainments said, in his "New York Weekly Messenger." January 6, 1850.

"Dr. Hoofand's German Bitters.—Here is a preparation which the leading Journals in the Union appear to be usanimous in recommending and the reason is obvious. It is made after a prescription furnished by one of the v of Jena Private Physician to the King of Prussia, and ty of Jena Private Physician to the King of Prussia, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically the enemy of humbug and therefore a medicine of which he was the inventor and endorser may be confidently relied on. He especially recommended it in Liver Complaint, Dyspepera, Nausea, Debilits, Vertigo, Acidity of the Stomach, Constipation, and all complaints arising from a disordered concedition of the Stomach, the Liver and the Intestines, Nine Philadelphia papers express their conviction of its excellence, and several of the editors speak of its effects from their own individual experience. MORE EVIDENCE.

The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," the best family newspaper published in the United States, the aditor says DR HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

"It is seldom we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines to the condence and patronage of our readers; and, therefore, when we recommend Dr. Hooflaud's Geran Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that man bitters, we wish it to realistrately understoom that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischlef, but of a medicine long established, universality prized and which have met the learny approval of the faculty Evidence upon evidence has been received like the foregoing) from all sections of the l'nion, the last three years and the strongest testimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelpha than all other nostrums com-Physicians of Philadelpha than all other nestrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dispersia, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts speculically upon the stomach and liver—it is preferable to caloniel in all billious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and reliable benefit, at any time.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS. This medicine has attained that high character which is necessary for all medicine to obtain to induce counterfeit-ers to out forth a spurious article at the risk of the lives of those who are innocently decrived.
